

get started

What preparations are you making for Easter?

Are you meeting with friends or family for a special meal? What traditions do you like to observe?

reflect

Read Matthew 7:21-23. These verses contain a warning and a promise.

What is the promise?

What is the warning?

What is the day that Jesus is referring to? What will Jesus be doing on that day?

What did Jesus mean when he declared, "I never knew you" in the passage?

The people Jesus describes did powerful acts in the name of Jesus. Why did Jesus call them "workers of lawlessness"?

dig

What does it mean to do the will of the Father?

What does that mean for followers of Jesus Christ today?

How can people be self-deceived about their relationship with God?

breakout

How do these verses challenge you in your walk with Jesus?

In midst of gatherings and special meals, what are you doing to prepare for the celebration of Jesus' resurrection?
