

All Things New Spirit Filled

2 Corinth. 5:5

What did you see this week that made you wonder, "What is this world coming to?" What did you personally experience this week that caused you to feel burdened?

Read 2 Corinthians 4:16-5:5. How could Paul argue that afflictions (troubles) are momentary? How can Paul encourage people not to lose heart?

In 2 Corinthians 5:5, Paul describes the Holy Spirit as a guarantee? What does the Spirit guarantee?

Between the two letters Paul wrote to the Corinthians he had a lot to say about what the Spirit does for followers of Jesus. What descriptions stand out to you?

The Holy Spirit is the guarantee that God is at work in the lives of His people. How does that promise encourage you today? How does that promise affect the way you look at troubles and difficulties you are facing now?
