

Sons and Daughters: 1 Corinthians 7:10-40

July 30, 2017

1. We talk about being "free in Christ." What does that mean? Are there any boundaries to that freedom?
2. Paul made it a point to become "all things to all people" (1 Corinthians 9:22). What was his reason for doing so? How would he do so?
3. Paul loved the people he reached out to and desired that they share in the blessings of the gospel. How would you explain the blessings of the gospel to a single mother? To a young person struggling with peer pressure? To someone who wonders if God exists?
4. Read 1 Corinthians 9:24-27. What distractions can keep us from sharing the Gospel?
5. What distractions are there in your life? Are there practical steps to take to lay those distractions aside?
