

Never Alone

September 2, 2018

---

Jesus said to his disciples, “Don’t let your hearts be troubled” (John 14:1). What could possibly be troubling the disciples the week following the Triumphal Entry and the apparent rise in Jesus’ popularity?

Read John 14:15-17. Jesus responds to the concerns expressed by Thomas who was speaking what the other disciples were thinking and feeling. What did Jesus say in response to their concerns and questions?

What commandments was Jesus talking about in John 14:15?

What does it look like, to love one another as we have been loved by Jesus (John 13:34-35)?

What promise does Jesus make in John 14:16-17?

If Jesus promised that the Helper, who we understand to be God the Holy Spirit, will be with us, what does that mean for how you will walk through your day? Jesus said to his disciples, “Don’t let your hearts be troubled” (John 14:1). What could possibly be troubling the disciples the week following the Triumphal Entry and the apparent rise in Jesus’ popularity?

Read John 14:15-17. Jesus responds to the concerns expressed by Thomas who was speaking what the other disciples were thinking and feeling. What did Jesus say in response to their concerns and questions?

What commandments was Jesus talking about in John 14:15?

What does it look like, to love one another as we have been loved by Jesus (John 13:34-35)?

What promise does Jesus make in John 14:16-17?

If Jesus promised that the Helper (God the Holy Spirit) will be with us, what does that mean for how you will walk through your day?

---

*Following
Jesus
Together*